

I have communicated with my congressperson and both senators regarding your proposed new set of media ownership rules you will vote for or against on June 2. The airwaves belong to the American people and you are our guardian. We urge you to vote against those new rules.